CAMP FLOYD STATE PARK 2011 JOHNSTON'S ARMY ADVENTURE CAMP

Exploring life with Johnston's Army (Boy Scouts)

Travel back in time to 1858 – 1861 and enter the world of a soldier with Johnston's Army at Camp Floyd in the Utah Territory. As a new enlisted private, you will don your uniform, shoulder your musket, and march off to a new adventure!

Arriving at camp, your commanding officer will instruct you and fellow recruits on the logistics and activities that await you. New recruits are processed, mustered into the army and issued uniforms. Leaving modern possessions behind, the call of bugles and your officers' commands will replace the daily routine of 21st century life.

Examples of Camp Activities

Soldiers Camp – Join the Army. Meet costumed interpreters and learn about a soldier's equipment and camp life. Fire a rifle musket; drill like soldiers with a replica rifle. Play camp games like graces, hoops, and more.

Craft Activities – Make items such as a musket rifle cartridge, and more.
