

Golf Elevated

The well known Mountain and Lake Courses at Wasatch Mountain State Park are consistently ranked among the most popular, affordable and scenic in Utah. Nationally, Golf Digest rated the courses 4.5 out of 5 stars in their "Best Places to Play" review. At an elevation of 6,000 feet, golfers enjoy cooler temperatures during summer months, while the course also offers early spring and late fall play.

THE LAKE COURSE:

Resting on gentle terrain, the Lake Course is often judged to be easier than it really is. The course has several short par-5 holes, which require accurate tee shots to avoid well-established stands of trees lining each fairway. Its season-long pastoral beauty, with tree-lined fairways and eight lakes and ponds, offers just the right setting to make the Lake Course a favorite for both high and low handicappers.

THE MOUNTAIN COURSE:

The Mountain Course is a classic mountain-style layout. It requires shots played from differing elevations throughout. Golfers enjoy occasional sightings of roaming deer, elk, wild turkeys, moose, and other wildlife. Motorized golf carts are mandatory on the Mountain Course.

AMENITIES:

Wasatch Mountain Golf Course has a driving range, large putting green and PGA professionals on staff for instruction with video analysis. The Wasatch Park Café has some of the best food around and a banquet facility large enough to accommodate 150 people.
